

Crestone End of Life Project

The Crestone End of Life Project has selected Xplore Design, Inc. to re-design their website with a focus on modernizing the interactivity and usability, adding the ability to manage the site more easily through the use of the Joomla Content Management System, and to provide more current information on their rapidly evolving non-profit organization.